III. Nuremberg Exhibition Centre

Year built/building costs

The Nuremberg Exhibition Centre opened for operation at the beginning of 1973; capital invested 1973-2022: approx. EUR 952 million

Exhibition space

- approx. 180,000 m² of exhibition space
- up to 50.000 m² of outdoor space

Exhibition halls

- 16 exhibition halls, including 1 multi-purpose hall
- Hall sizes range from 4,680 m² to 16,410 m²
- Respective clear heights 6 m, 10 m, 12 m and 15 m
- Closely spaced recessed floor connection points for utilities and drainage
- Technical facilities and architecture offer excellent exhibiting conditions for both capital goods and high-value consumer goods
- Supplier traffic (loading areas) and visitor traffic (entry areas and internal court) kept rigorously separate

NürnbergConvention Center

The NürnbergConvention Center has four building complexes – NCC Mitte, NCC West, NCC Ost and the Frankenhalle. Fifty auditoriums and conference rooms fitted with high-quality equipment are available for congresses, conventions and events of all kinds. The NürnbergConvention Center thus offers maximum spatial, technical and organisational flexibility, for everything from 15-member workshops to major conventions with 12,800 attendees.

Service facilities

The exhibition halls are approached via six separate entry areas with service facilities, so multiple events can be held at the same time. The West, Centre and East Service Centres offer services from A to Z.

Restaurants

- 7 restaurants with about 1,700 seats
- 7 bistros with about 600 seats
- 3 cafeterias in the entrance hall Mitte/NCC Ost/entrance hall 3C (first level)
- Additional restaurants in the exhibition halls as needed

Exterior facilities

NürnbergMesse has 13,500 parking spaces, 6,500 of them within walking distance of the exhibition halls and congress centres (and 3,000 of those in an indoor car park). At the Exhibition Centre Nuremberg, 19 charging stations with two charging points (AC) each are currently available for charging e-vehicles in five areas. In addition, the innovative Audi charging hub with its reservable fast charging points (DC) extends the possibilities for charging your electric vehicle. Additional parking is available in the immediate environs and is accessible via shuttle bus within minutes during events. The Messe underground station at the West/Centre entry and separate taxi lanes to the entrance zones provide speedy arrivals and departures.

Transport connections

Messe underground station (8 minutes to main railway station and centre of town, 25 minutes to Nuremberg Airport), short connections via dual-carriageway streets to the autobahn motorway network, six autobahn interchanges, electronic traffic management from autobahns to the site, ICE and IC connections, line flights to numerous European hubs and airports.
